

Code of Conduct

The Board of Lawson Gold Limited is committed to administering the policies and procedures of corporate governance with openness and integrity.

Introduction

1. The Code of Conduct sets out the standards which the Board, management and employees of the Company, as well as contractors and consultants, are encouraged to comply with when dealing with each other, the Company's shareholders and the broader community.

Responsibilities to shareholders

2. The Company aims:
 - a) to increase shareholder value within an appropriate framework that safeguards the rights and interests of shareholders; and
 - b) to comply with systems of control and accountability which the Company has in place as part of its corporate governance with openness and integrity.

Responsibilities to clients, employees, suppliers, creditors, customers and consumers

3. The Company is to comply with all legislative and common law requirements which affect its business.

Employment practices

4. The Company will employ or engage the best available staff, contractors or consultants with skills required to carry out the role for which they are employed. The Company will ensure a safe workplace and maintain proper occupational health and safety practices.

Responsibility to the community

5. The Company will recognise, consider and respect environmental, native title and cultural heritage issues which arise in relation to the Company's activities and comply with all applicable legal requirements.

Responsibility to the individual

6. The Company recognises and respects the rights of individuals and will comply with the applicable legal rules regarding privacy and confidential information.

Obligations relative to fair trading and dealing

7. The Company will deal with others in a way that is fair and will not engage in deceptive practices.

Business courtesies, bribes, facilitation payments, inducements and commissions

8. Every Company director and employee and, while engaged in work for the Company, every contractor and consultant shall work and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. Corrupt practices are unacceptable to the Company. It is prohibited for the Company or its directors, managers or employees or, while engaged in work for the Company, contractors and consultants to directly or indirectly offer, pay, solicit or accept bribes or any other corrupt arrangements.

Conflicts of interest

9. The Board, management, employees, contractors and consultants shall report any situations where there is a real or apparent conflict of interest between them as individuals and the interest of the Company. Where a real or apparent conflict of interest arises, the matter should be brought to the attention of the Chairman so that it may be considered and dealt with in an appropriate manner.
10. If requested by the Chairman, a Board member who has a conflict of interest (or in the case of the Chairman, if requested by other Board members) shall leave a Board meeting but only for such a period as the Board meeting is addressing the specific matter in relation to which the Board member has a conflict of interest.

Compliance with the Code of Conduct

11. Any breach of compliance with this Code of Conduct is to be reported directly to the Chairman.

Periodic review of Code

12. The Company will monitor compliance with this Code of Conduct periodically by liaising with the Board, management, staff, contractors and consultants. Suggestions for improvements or amendments to this Code of Conduct can be made at any time to the Chairman.
